EDUCATION AND TRAINING

2015

BITCamp Java/Android class

Bitcamp is an intensive 6 month bootcamp for programmers. My goal was to learn Java and android development and this course provided excellent structure and content for me to achieve that goal. During the course I was tasked, along with my team, to create a site that will offer the same function as booking.com, that included all frontend and backend services, as well as PayPal payment integration.

- Programming languages, concepts and technologies I used:

- Java, Scala
- JavaScript, jQuery
- JSON, XML
- HTML, CSS, Bootstrap
- Eclipse, IntelliJ and Android Studio IDEs
- MVC pattern, REST API
- Play Framework
- MySQL
- PayPal SDK
